She'll have no problem with this request, in fact, as Elena was forced to marry him. Elena will simply be rescuing her friend from a cruel mob boss. Pretending she's defecting, Elena heads to the Sokolov compound, escorted by the most maddening and distracting man she's ever met. It's almost as if Roman Garinovich was created just to get under her skin. Still, Elena won't let Roman stop her from completing her deadly task. There's just one hitch: Alexandra really loves Viktor, and killing him will crush her. Torn between her loyalty to her father and her best friend, Elena continues to plot, trying to ignore the growing instinct telling her to spare Viktor's life—and also working to ignore her growing attraction to Roman. Roman doesn't believe a word that comes out of Elena's mouth, however, and he's not about to let his guard down around her. Deep in his gut, he knows something's not right about her story... but that doesn't stop him from acting on his unwelcome attraction to her.
